

Coronavirus: Continuing to study whilst in self-isolation

Guidance for Postgraduate Research Students

Updated 13 March 2020

Whilst self-isolating you may feel well enough to engage with your studies. If this is the case, follow the guidance below:

1. Please ensure you have informed Student Services:
 - Completing the online referral form Student Self-notification Form
 - Telephone 020 8240 8238 or 020 8240 2359 (Mon-Fri 9am -5pm),
 - Outside office hours you can telephone Security 020 8240 4335
2. Inform your Primary Research Supervisor and research@stmarys.ac.uk as quickly as possible.
3. Avoid contact with other students and staff.
4. Contact your Primary Research Supervisor on a regular basis (once a week) to seek any guidance on how to access supervision support or guidance.
5. Access recorded lectures/seminars available via Teaching & Learning Capture (TLC) or Research Degree Programme information via Moodle.
<http://simmspace.stmarys.ac.uk/Pages/mymodules.aspx>
6. Access Study Support Resources provided by Student Services – Student Services Handbook: <http://simmspace.stmarys.ac.uk/services-students/Documents/Student-Services-Handbook.pdf>
7. Access Study Support Resources which are available via Simmspace. See: <http://simmspace.stmarys.ac.uk/services-students/learning-development/Pages/default.aspx>
8. Apply for Interruption of Studies – speak to your Primary Research Supervisor about taking some time off, if required.
9. Access Library resources online via Simmspace – a wealth of information, study skills guidance, and e-learning resources is available via the Library which you can access from any smart device using WiFi: <http://simmspace.stmarys.ac.uk/services-students/library-IT-services/Pages/default.aspx>

Once your period of self-isolation is concluded, please inform Student Services and your Primary Research Supervisor.

If you have any queries regarding your studies, please contact your Primary Research Supervisor