

Your personal university checklist

Choosing the right university isn't just about rankings, it's about finding the best fit for you.

What are your non-negotiables that will shape your university experience? Maybe you're looking for a vibrant student community, top-tier career support, or something more specific to your needs.

Use this checklist as an aid to note down your priorities, compare your options and, confidently choose your top five universities.

- List your must-haves: what factors most matter to you?
- Research universities: write down which ones match your criteria.
- Make notes: Make sure you have a notebook handy to jot down key insights from Open Days, websites or student reviews.
